World Environment Day Report

Introduction

Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj University (CSMU) celebrated World Environment Day on 5th June 2025 with the global theme Ending Plastic Pollution Globally. The event aimed to spread awareness about the hazardous impact of plastic pollution and encourage sustainable practices among students and faculty. The event was organized collaboratively by the Faculty of Science, NSS Unit, and Department of Civil Engineering.

Program Highlights

The event was held in the Seminar Hall, Pratapgad, and witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, faculty, and staff.

Awareness Rally and Plantation Drive

The celebration began with an impactful awareness rally organized by NSS volunteers and university students in front of the Rajgad Block. Students carried hand-made posters, slogans, and banners advocating for an end to plastic pollution. The rally aimed to generate awareness among fellow students and staff on the urgent need to reduce plastic use and adopt sustainable alternatives. The energy and enthusiasm of the students set a positive and determined tone for the day.

A plantation drive was conducted by faculty members and students of CSMU. Saplings were planted in and around the campus premises, reinforcing the university's long-term commitment to ecological balance and green campus initiatives. The activity not only provided a hands-on learning experience but also symbolized growth, renewal, and a cleaner future.

Lamp Lighting Ceremony

The formal function commenced with the traditional lighting of the ceremonial lamp by the dignitaries, symbolizing enlightenment and the spirit of environmental awakening. The act reflected the university's commitment to sustainability and marked the inauguration of the program.

Welcome Note

Dr. Soni Pathak, in her welcome address, greeted all the attendees and dignitaries. She emphasized the significance of observing World Environment Day and the importance of student involvement in environmental initiatives. She also highlighted the university's efforts in promoting green practices across the campus.

Felicitation of the Chief Guest

Dr. Jaishree Saxena honored Hon'ble Vice Chancellor of CSMU Prof. (Dr.) K.L. Verma a distinguished academician, as the Chief Guest of the event. A token of appreciation was presented to him for his valuable contribution to environmental research and education.

Address by Hon'ble Vice Chancellor

Prof. (Dr.) K.L. Verma, the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor of CSMU, delivered an inspiring speech encouraging students and faculty to lead by example in adopting sustainable practices. He stressed the importance of reducing plastic usage, integrating environmental education into academic life, and building a greener campus community.

Expert Talk by Chief Guest on Theme

Dr. S.K. Choudhary, delivered an engaging and informative talk on this year's World Environment Day theme – "Ending Plastic Pollution Globally". He discussed the alarming impact of plastic on ecosystems, human health, and climate change. He also suggested actionable solutions such as banning single-use plastics, promoting biodegradable alternatives, and enhancing waste segregation and recycling.

Speech by NSS Students

Selected NSS student volunteers gave short speeches reflecting on their understanding and experience with environmental conservation efforts. They shared how their participation in university-led green initiatives has shaped their perspective and committed them to becoming environmentally responsible citizens.

Certificate Distribution

In recognition of their contributions and participation in environmental and social outreach activities, NSS student volunteers were awarded certificates. The distribution was carried out by the Chief Guest and Vice Chancellor. This gesture served to motivate students and acknowledge their dedication to social responsibility.

Vote of Thanks

Dr. Jaishree Saxena delivered the vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all the dignitaries, faculty members, student volunteers, and organizing departments. She acknowledged the combined efforts that made the event a success and encouraged everyone to carry the spirit of environmental stewardship forward.

“Celebration of Road safety awareness week and Traffic Management Training”

BRIEFINGS

Topic: Road safety and traffic management_

Date: 28/01/2026

Venue: Palaspe

Organiser: Traffic Police panel and NSS Unit

Objective: Understand and awareness about traffic .

As a part of Road Safety Week, the National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj University actively participated in a Road Safety Awareness and Traffic Management Training Programme organized in collaboration with the Palaspe Traffic Police Station, Panvel. The programme aimed to educate NSS volunteers about road safety regulations, traffic management techniques, and their role in promoting safe and responsible road usage.

The programme commenced with an orientation session conducted by officers from the Palaspe Traffic Police Station. The officers explained the importance of traffic discipline, road safety rules, and the responsibilities of traffic personnel in ensuring the smooth movement of vehicles and pedestrians. The students were also informed about common causes of road accidents, methods of accident prevention, emergency response procedures, and the significance of wearing helmets, using seat belts, and following traffic signals.

Following the theoretical session, the NSS volunteers received practical training on traffic management. Under the guidance and supervision of the traffic police personnel, the students learned how to regulate traffic flow, guide pedestrians safely, manage vehicle movement at busy intersections, and communicate effectively with road users using standard traffic signals and hand gestures.

The practical exposure provided the volunteers with first-hand experience in handling real-time traffic situations. The NSS students enthusiastically performed traffic management duties on the roads near the Palaspe Traffic Police Station while being closely supervised by the traffic police officers. This hands-on experience helped the students understand the challenges faced by traffic police personnel and strengthened their sense of discipline, responsibility, teamwork, and public service.

The programme also created awareness among commuters regarding safe driving practices, adherence to traffic rules, and respect for traffic authorities. The interaction between the NSS volunteers and the public promoted the message of responsible road behaviour and accident prevention.

The event concluded with words of appreciation from the traffic police officers, who commended the enthusiasm, discipline, and dedication displayed by the NSS volunteers throughout the programme. The officers encouraged the students to become ambassadors of road safety and continue spreading awareness within their communities.

The Road Safety Week programme proved to be a highly informative and practical learning experience. It enhanced the volunteers' understanding of traffic management, civic responsibility, and public safety while reinforcing the NSS motto "Not Me, But You." The initiative successfully inspired students to contribute towards creating safer roads and a more responsible society.

BRIEFINGS

Topic: Celebration of Shivaji Maharaj Jayanti_

Date: 19/02/2026

Venue: Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Univerty

Organiser: NSS Unit and Cultural Team

Objective: Celebration of Jayanti

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj University celebrated Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Jayanti on 19th February 2026 with great enthusiasm, patriotism, and cultural fervour. The programme was organized to commemorate the birth anniversary of the great Maratha warrior, visionary administrator, and founder of the Maratha Empire, Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj, while inspiring students with his ideals of courage, leadership, justice, and selfless service.

The celebration commenced at 9:00 AM with the Pooja of the statue of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj, performed in the presence of university dignitaries, faculty members, NSS Programme Officers, staff, and students. Floral tributes were offered to the statue as a mark of respect, and the gathering paid homage to the legendary king whose life continues to inspire generations. Following the ceremonial worship, the NSS volunteers presented a vibrant Lezim performance, showcasing the rich cultural heritage of Maharashtra. The energetic performance created an atmosphere of pride and enthusiasm and reflected the spirit of discipline, teamwork, and traditional values.

The cultural programme continued with a theatrical skit performed by NSS volunteers, depicting significant events from the life of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj. The skit highlighted his exemplary leadership, administrative excellence, military strategy, commitment to justice, and respect for women and all religions. The performance effectively conveyed the timeless values and vision of Shivaji Maharaj to the audience. One of the major attractions of the programme was the presentation of a Powada, a traditional Marathi ballad narrating the heroic deeds and victories of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj. The powerful and inspiring rendition filled the audience with a sense of patriotism and admiration for the great warrior king.

The celebration witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, faculty members, NSS volunteers, and university staff. The programme not only honoured the legacy of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj but also encouraged students to imbibe his ideals of courage, integrity, leadership, discipline, and dedication towards society and the nation.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the university management, faculty members, NSS volunteers, cultural participants, and all those who contributed to the successful organization of the programme.

The Shivaji Maharaj Jayanti celebration served as a meaningful platform to strengthen cultural awareness, patriotism, and social responsibility among students. It reinforced the message that the principles and vision of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj continue to guide the youth in building a just, progressive, and united nation.

Objective: Guest Session

On 27th February 2026, the NSS Unit of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj University proudly participated in the NSS programme "Shastrast" organized by the NSS Unit of Bharati Vidyapeeth, Kharghar. The event aimed to inspire NSS volunteers through thought-provoking discussions on scientific thinking, social awareness, and responsible citizenship.

Mr. Sandeep S. Gaikwad, NSS Coordinator, Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj University, was invited as the Guest Speaker for the programme. During the interactive session, he addressed the gathering on the importance of developing a scientific outlook, promoting critical thinking, and fulfilling one's social responsibility as an active citizen. He emphasized that NSS volunteers play a vital role in creating an informed, compassionate, and progressive society by encouraging rational thinking, community service, and ethical values.

The session witnessed enthusiastic participation from NSS volunteers, faculty members, and coordinators of Bharati Vidyapeeth. The interactive discussion encouraged students to question superstitions, adopt evidence-based thinking, and actively contribute to nation-building through community engagement and volunteerism.

The programme provided an excellent platform for the exchange of ideas and strengthened the collaborative spirit between the NSS units of the two institutions. The volunteers appreciated the practical insights shared during the session and expressed their commitment to applying these values in their personal and social lives.

Mr. Sandeep Gaikwad expressed his sincere gratitude to the Hon'ble Registrar of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj University for providing him with the opportunity to represent the university as a Guest Speaker at such a prestigious programme. He also thanked the organizers and the NSS Unit of Bharati Vidyapeeth, Kharghar, for their warm hospitality and the opportunity to interact with the dedicated NSS volunteers.

The programme concluded successfully, reinforcing the significance of scientific temper, social responsibility, and the spirit of "Not Me, But You," which forms the foundation of the National Service Scheme.

"Mitti Ki Awaaz – Mumbai Chapter"

BRIEFINGS

Topic: "Mitti Ki Awaaz – Mumbai Chapter"

Date: 2/06/2026

Day: Tuesday

Venue: D. Y. Patil University, Navi Mumbai

Organiser: D. Y. Patil University, Navi Mumbai

Objective: Awareness about Nature

As part of the World Environment Week celebrations, NSS volunteers from Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj University, Panvel actively participated in the "Mitti Ki Awaaz – Mumbai Chapter" programme organized at D. Y. Patil University, Navi Mumbai on 2 June 2026. The event brought together educational institutions, environmental organizations, and youth volunteers to promote environmental conservation, sustainability, and community participation.

The programme featured renowned environmental advocate and actor Jackie Shroff, whose inspiring message encouraged the participants to adopt eco-friendly practices and contribute towards protecting the environment. The event emphasized the importance of conserving natural resources, increasing green cover, and creating awareness about climate change and sustainable living.

The NSS volunteers from Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj University served as event volunteers, playing an active role in the successful execution of the programme. They assisted the organizing team in volunteer coordination, participant guidance, crowd management, registration support, stage management, and ensuring the smooth conduct of various activities throughout the event. Their discipline, teamwork, punctuality, and dedication were highly appreciated by the organizers.

The programme provided the volunteers with valuable exposure to large-scale event management while strengthening their leadership, communication, and organizational skills. It also gave them an opportunity to interact with volunteers and participants from different institutions, fostering collaboration and a shared commitment towards environmental protection.

Through their participation, the NSS volunteers reaffirmed their commitment to environmental stewardship and the NSS motto "Not Me, But You." The event inspired them to continue working towards environmental sustainability and to motivate others to adopt responsible practices for the conservation of nature.

The participation in "Mitti Ki Awaaz – Mumbai Chapter" proved to be a meaningful learning experience, encouraging students to become active ambassadors of environmental awareness and sustainable development while contributing selflessly to the successful organization of the programme.
